Adam Savett
Vice President and Product and Market Segment Manager
Securities Class Action Services

Adam Savett is the Vice President and Product and Market Segment Manager for ISS' Securities Class Action Services. He has an extensive background in securities litigation, having practiced in Philadelphia and Washington, D.C. before joining ISS in 2007. During that time, Savett represented and advised institutional investors, including public and private pension funds as well as Taft-Hartley plans, in all aspects of securities litigation, and had primary day-to-day responsibility for his firm's institutional investor portfolio monitoring programs.

Savett is the author of a popular securities-litigation related blog, Lies, Damn Lies, & Forward Looking Statement, and writes for ISS' Securities Litigation Watch blog. He also authored two recent articles on securities litigation, Current Trends In Motion Practice In Federal Securities Class Actions, 23rd Annual Institute On Federal Securities, February 16-18, 2005 and Some Recent Developments In Securities Litigation, 22nd Annual Institute On Federal Securities, February 11-12, 2004, and is frequently quoted in the media on securities litigation related topics.

Savett graduated from The American University in Washington, D.C. in 1997 with a bachelors degree in Broadcast Journalism, and obtained his law degree from the Villanova University School of Law in 2000. He maintains strong ties to Villanova, serving as a member of the Villanova Law Alumni Association's DC/MD/VA Alumni Chapter Board and as an invited judge for the annual Theodore L. Reimel Moot Court Competition.

He is a member of the Pennsylvania, New Jersey, D.C., and Virginia bars and is admitted to practice before the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia and the United States District Courts for the District of Columbia, District of Maryland, Eastern District of Pennsylvania and for the District of New Jersey. He is also a member of the American and Pennsylvania Bar Associations.
